

Parking in the triangle opposite the Dun Horse

The Parish Council has noted that several residents have commented on the six villages Facebook that accessing the A281 by the Dun Horse is sometimes unsafe because of parking on the triangle. The Parish Council has had a site meeting with West Sussex County Council to try to find a possible resolution. West Sussex County Council has made one suggestion which the Parish Council is currently considering.