75th VJ Day anniversary

Local resident Alan Woolven, who played piano and accordion in local concerts during the war, took to the Carfax bandstand with Horsham diva Sarah Esser for a very special performance last week.

You'll be able to watch Alan's performance on Horsham Time Well Spent's Facebook page and BBC South this coming Saturday 15 August to mark the 75th VJ Day Anniversary.

Visit our Commemorate VJ Day page on the Discover Horsham District website for more ways to get involved online and to see a list of 'things to do at home' so you can take part.

Meet our first Recycling Champions

Meet our first recycling champion, Amanda, who lives in Horsham with her husband and three children.

The family have signed up to trial a Hot Bin organic composter for six months and will share just how using the special bin will reduce the amount of food waste which goes into the waste stream and will turn it into home composting.

Watch our video to hear Amanda talking with Cabinet Member for Environment, Recycling and Waste, Philip Circus about the project and why she wanted to get involved.

Read and comment on the Local Cycling and Walking Infrastructure Plan

Horsham's first Local Cycling and Walking Infrastructure Plan (LCWIP) is a new strategic approach to identifying cycling and walking improvements required at a local level. The plan takes a long-term approach to developing cycling and walking networks.

Share your views on the plan by commenting using the link below. Your views will play a key part in conversations on how we make our main routes into the town centre truly walkable and safe to cycle.

Closing date for comments is 28 August 2020.

Tea at 2 is a hit

Since we launched our Tea at Two campaign, dozens of local eateries have signed up to offer special promotions for customers wanting to enjoy a quieter bite to eat when our towns and villages are not so busy.

Look out for businesses displaying Tea at Two posters and window stickers to let customers know about their special offers after two o'clock each day.
